NOTE

For AYP purposes, school types are defined as follows: elementary (grades K-5); middle school (grades 6-8); and high school (grades 9-12). Schools that span multiple levels (e.g., K-8; 6-12; K-12) are classified by the highest grade level served.

The total numbers listed above do not include the 45 schools assessed as “feeder” schools (feed out or feed in). These schools do not have AYP tested grades and instead are assessed for AYP status based on the AYP status of the schools that students attended after leaving the feed out school or before entering the feed in school. “Feed out” schools typically have grade spans of KG-KG, KG-01, or KG-02. “Feed in” schools have grade spans of 11-12 or 12 only.
